'THE WESTOVER' IS BORN

Wednesday 9 April – It is announced today that after joining forces in August 2007, Brompton Cross Clinic in South Kensington and Westover House in Wandsworth will now operate as The Westover. This re-branding marks the third phase of the expansion programme which will see twelve of The Westover's private polyclinics open across the UK over the next two years. A further two of The Westover clinics will open by 1 September 2008.

From 7 April 2008, the clinics will be referred to as:

The Westover – Brompton Cross
The Westover – Wandsworth
The Westover – Notting Hill (opens 1 May 2008)
The Westover - Chelsea (opens 1 September 2008)

The Westover clinics are situated across London providing both medical and complementary services in an integrated and holistic setting. The Westover's services are available on a membership basis providing a wide range of the UK's top medical specialists, supplementary healthcare professionals and therapists all under one well-designed roof.

Membership of The Westover, at £45 per month, provides each patient with an annual health check and then unlimited visits to their GP without further charge. This forms the basis of a personalised, long-term medical and healthcare plan which combines the use of highly advanced technology and diagnostics with proactive health management where bespoke programmes are developed to help optimise every individual's health, including advice and action plans on diet, fitness and lifestyle.

The Westover offers its members maximum convenience with opening hours of 7:30am to 8:00pm as well as 24/7 on call access and a range of other services. The clinics are equipped with the latest medical, surgical and dental facilities and provide a uniquely comprehensive and integrated set of medical and health services for individuals and families in London.

Note to editor

Dr Amber Kennard opened the Brompton Cross Clinic in December 2006 and subsequently acquired Westover House Clinic in August 2007 with the aim of pioneering a chain of customer-centred, integrated clinics, which are guided by the principle that 'prevention is better than cure'. Two further clinics are opening in Notting Hill in May 2008 and Chelsea in September 2008.

The holding company for The Westover is Westover Medical Limited, previously named Creswell Medical Limited.
